

Contact: Linda Wasche / LW Marketworks, Inc.
248-253-0300 / Lindaw@LWmarketworks.com

Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors selected by Fisher Foundation to provide guidance on grantmaking systems

Detroit and Chicago – Feb. 3, 2010– Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors, with offices in Detroit and Chicago, has been selected by Max M. & Marjorie S. Fisher Foundation of Southfield, Michigan to provide guidance to the foundation on grantmaking systems and procedures. The announcement was made by Mark E. Neithercut, principal of Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors.

Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors creates strategies for effective, rewarding philanthropy for foundations, charitable individuals and professional advisors. Max M. & Marjorie S. Fisher Foundation supports initiatives involving the Jewish community, youth and families, health, education, arts and culture.

Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors has extensive experience in developing, managing and assessing foundation grantmaking systems around the U.S. It is one of only 20 firms in the U.S. that has completed the National Center for Family Philanthropy training necessary to lead a family foundation through the Pursuit of Excellence, a new assessment process. Recent clients of Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors include the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan, The Kresge Foundation, the Colorado Health Foundation, the Kansas Health Foundation and the Ruth Mott Foundation. For information, go to neithercutphilanthropy.com.

Max M. & Marjorie S. Fisher Foundation seeks to have impact on foundation areas including: providing for the needs and safeguarding the Jewish people, strengthening families and the supportive framework surrounding them, reducing the accelerating impact of HIV/AIDS and supporting education, promoting the arts and enhancing the discovery and preservation of ancient and modern cultures. For information, go to mmfisher.org.

###